COUNCIL MEETING MAY14, '15

The next meeting of the Council will take place in the Watson Room located in the lower church hall.

The meeting will begin at 7:00pm.

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT:

Brother Knights,

I attended the State Knight's Convention over the weekend, the guest speakers made the whole trip worthwhile. My three favorite speakers were from ThriVe, Cardinal Glennon and Special Olympics Missouri. Bridget VanMeans from ThriVe did her usual fantastic energy filled presentation on their current and future projects. ThriVe recently received a third MMC (mobile medical center), this one is a smaller unit to be used to target college campuses. They also have their latest promotion the "sweatless marathon" a parade of vehicles driving 26.2 miles touring between Thrive locations starting in St. Charles County. She let the rest of the state Knights know about the impact they are having in St. Louis. Colleen Dolnick from Cardinal Glennon was next, she did a great job explaining the humble beginnings of the Developmental Disabilities Center and where they are today through the generosity of the Knights. We often take for granted the DD Center at Cardinal Glennon because it is right in our backyard. Colleen brought the Cardinal Glennon message to the State. Colleen has stories of the impact the Center has had on families and the growth the Center has had over the past few years. She let the State Knights know their funds from the DD Drives were being put to good use. The last speaker was Incarnate Word's Mary Bauer from SOMO (Special Olympics Missouri), what a dynamic speaker. Mary told the Knights about her relationship with the Knights through an elderly gentleman who was a friend of the family. From there she spoke of her work with Special Olympics and her opportunity to work with SOMO as the liaison to the Knights of Columbus. Once she had established how important the Knights and SOMO were to her, she began to tell us about the planned training facility and what it will do for the state's Special Olympians. Mary held everyone's attention, she's a great asset to the program and an outstanding representative for Incarnate Word Parish. Mary puts our Council in a tough spot, shouldn't the Knights in her home parish Council be one of her biggest supporters in her quest to raise funds for the SOMO training facility? The rest of the conference was the usual breakout sessions about membership and various programs. Saturday's banquet had the annual awards presentation where our Council took two awards for the DD Drive, one for third highest total funds collected and one for third highest amount per capita of membership. Great job guys!

Fraternally yours,

Don Mueller
Grand Knight

BITS & PIECES:

Delicious

Three sons left home, went out on their own and prospered. Getting back together, they discussed the gifts they were able to give their elderly mother.

The first said, "I built a big house for our mother."

The second said, "I sent her a Mercedes with a driver."

The third smiled and said, "I've got you, both beat. You know how Mom enjoys the Bible, and you know she can't see very well. I sent her a brown parrot that can recite the entire Bible. It took 20 monks in a monastery 12 years to teach him. I had to pledge to contribute $100,000.00 a year for 10 years, but it was worth it. Mom just has to name the chapter and verse, and the parrot will recite it."

Soon thereafter, Mom sent out her letters of thanks: "Milton," she wrote the first son, "The house you built is so huge. I live in only one room, but I have to clean the whole house."

"Marvin," she wrote to another, "I am too old to travel. I stay home all the time, so I never use the Mercedes. And the driver is so rude!"

"Dearest Melvin," she wrote to her third son, "You were the only son to have the good sense to know what your mother likes. That chicken was delicious."

Fred wants to get married!

Fred is 32 years old and he is still single.

One day a friend asked, "Why aren't you married? Can't you find a woman who will be a good wife?"

Fred replied, "Actually, I've found many women I wanted to marry, but when I bring them home to meet my parents, my mother doesn't like them."

His friend thinks for a moment and says, "I've got the perfect solution, just find a girl who's just like your mother."

A few months later they meet again and his friend says, "Did you find the perfect girl? Did your mother like her?"

With a frown on his face, Fred answers, "Yes, I found the perfect girl. She was just like my mother. You were right, my mother liked her very much."

The friend said, "Then what's the problem?"

Fred replied, "My father doesn't like her."

God will provide!

A young woman brings home her fiancée to meet her parents. After dinner, her mother tells her father to find out about the young man. The father invites the fiancée to his study for a drink.

"So what are your plans?" the father asks the young man. "I am a Torah scholar," he replies.

"A Torah scholar. Hmmm," the father says. "Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in, as she's accustomed to?" "I will study," the young man replies, "and God will provide for us."

"And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves?" asks the father.

"I will concentrate on my studies," the young man replies, "God will provide for us."

"And children?" asks the father. "How will you support children?"

"Don't worry, sir, God will provide," replies the fiancée.

The conversation proceeds like this, and each time the father questions, the young idealist insists that God will provide. Later, the mother asks, "How did it go, Honey?"

The father answers, "He has no job and no plans, but the good news is he thinks I'm God."

Great news

The newlywed wife said to her husband when he returned from work, "I have great news for you. Pretty soon, we're going to be three in this house instead of two."

Her husband ran to her with a smile on his face and delight in his eyes.

He was glowing of happiness and kissing his wife when she said, "I'm glad that you feel this way since tomorrow morning, my mother moves in with us."

How were people born?

A child asked his father, "How were people born?" So his father said, "Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made babies, and so on." The child then went to his mother, asked her the same question and she told him, "We were monkeys then we evolved to become like we are now." The child ran back to his father and said, "You lied to me!" His father replied, "No, your mom was talking about her side of the family."

Mother Knows Best

John invited his mother over for dinner. During the course of the meal, his mother couldn't help but notice how John and his roommate Julie looked at each other. She had long been suspicious of a relationship between the two and this only made her more curious. By the end of the evening she was convinced there was more between them than met the eye. Reading his mom's thoughts, John volunteered, "I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you Julie and I are just roommates."

About a week later, Julie went to John saying, "Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find the silver gravy ladle. You don't suppose she took it, do you?"

John said, "Well, I doubt it, but I'll email her just to be sure."

So he sat down and wrote:

"Dear Mother, I'm not saying that you 'did' take the gravy ladle from my house, I'm not saying that you 'did not' take the gravy ladle but the fact remains that one has been missing ever since you were here for dinner. Love, John."

The next day, John received a response from his mother that read:

"Dear Son, I'm not saying that you 'do' sleep with Julie, and I'm not saying that you 'do not' sleep with Julie. But the fact remains that if she were sleeping in her own bed, she would have found the gravy ladle by now. Love, Mom."
