LADIES AUXILIARY MEMBERS:

Greeting Ladies,

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY LADIES!

Wishing everyone a wonderful day.

Our annual dinner will be held at the "Walnut Grill" Restaurant located at 1386 Clarkson/Clayton Center. On Thursday, May 3, 2018, at 6:30pm. Please call Toni at 314-469-1927 or Joan at 314-469-1713 for reservations. This will be our last meeting of the season.

The following was given to me by Madonna Stanley:

THERE IS A HEAVEN FOR VOLUNTEERS

Many will be shocked to find

When the day of judgement nears,
There's a special place in Heaven

Set aside for volunteers;
Furnished with big recliners,

Satin couches and footstools,
Where there's no Committee Chairman,

No group leaders, no car pools
No eager team that needs a coach,

No bazaar and no bake sale.

There will be nothing to staple,

Not one thing to fold or mail.

Telephone lists will be outlawed,

But a finger snap will bring
Cool drinks and gourmet dinners

And rare treats fit for a queen.
Who'll serve those privileged few

And work for all they're worth?

Why---all those who reaped the benefits

And NOT ONCE volunteered on earth.

Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as a single person in the world, the special graces that their lives require.

Form us all in the likeness of your Son so that in Him, with Him and through Him, we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere.

With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord.

BITS & PIECES:

Delicious

Three sons left home, went out on their own and prospered. Getting back together, they discussed the gifts they were able to give their elderly mother.

The first said, "I built a big house for our mother."

The second said, "I sent her a Mercedes with a driver."

The third smiled and said, "I've got you, both beat. You know how Mom enjoys the Bible, and you know she can't see very well. I sent her a brown parrot that can recite the entire Bible. It took 20 monks in a monastery 12 years to teach him. I had to pledge to contribute $100,000.00 a year for 10 years, but it was worth it. Mom just has to name the chapter and verse, and the parrot will recite it."

Soon thereafter, Mom sent out her letters of thanks: "Milton," she wrote the first son, "The house you built is so huge. I live in only one room, but I have to clean the whole house."

"Marvin," she wrote to another, "I am too old to travel. I stay home all the time, so I never use the Mercedes. And the driver is so rude!"

"Dearest Melvin," she wrote to her third son, "You were the only son to have the good sense to know what your mother likes. That chicken was delicious."

Fred wants to get married!

Fred is 32 years old and he is still single.

One day a friend asked, "Why aren't you married? Can't you find a woman who will be a good wife?" Fred replied, "Actually, I've found many women I wanted to marry, but when I bring them home to meet my parents, my mother doesn't like them." His friend thinks for a moment and says, "I've got the perfect solution, just find a girl who's just like your mother." A few months later they meet again and his friend says, "Did you find the perfect girl? Did your mother like her?" With a frown on his face, Fred answers, "Yes, I found the perfect girl. She was just like my mother. You were right, my mother liked her very much." The friend said, "Then what's the problem?" Fred replied, "My father doesn't like her."

God will provide!

A young woman brings home her fiancée to meet her parents. After dinner, her mother tells her father to find out about the young man. The father invites the fiancée to his study for a drink. "So what are your plans?" the father asks the young man. "I am a Torah scholar," he replies. "A Torah scholar. Hmmm," the father says. "Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in, as she's accustomed to?" "I will study," the young man replies, "and God will provide for us."

"And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves?" asks the father.

"I will concentrate on my studies," the young man replies, "God will provide for us."

"And children?" asks the father. "How will you support children?"

"Don't worry, sir, God will provide," replies the fiancée. The conversation proceeds like this, and each time the father questions, the young idealist insists that God will provide.

Later, the mother asks, "How did it go, Honey?" The father answers, "He has no job and no plans, but the good news is he thinks I'm God."

Great news

The newlywed wife said to her husband when he returned from work, "I have great news for you. Pretty soon, we're going to be three in this house instead of two."

Her husband ran to her with a smile on his face and delight in his eyes.

He was glowing of happiness and kissing his wife when she said, "I'm glad that you feel this way since tomorrow morning, my mother moves in with us."

How were people born?

A child asked his father, "How were people born?" So his father said, "Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made babies, and so on." The child then went to his mother, asked her the same question and she told him, "We were monkeys then we evolved to become like we are now." The child ran back to his father and said, "You lied to me!" His father replied, "No, your mom was talking about her side of the family."

Mother Knows Best

John invited his mother over for dinner. During the course of the meal, his mother couldn't help but notice how John and his roommate Julie looked at each other. She had long been suspicious of a relationship between the two and this only made her more curious. By the end of the evening she was convinced there was more between them than met the eye. Reading his mom's thoughts, John volunteered, "I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you Julie and I are just roommates."

About a week later, Julie went to John saying, "Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find the silver gravy ladle. You don't suppose she took it, do you?"

John said, "Well, I doubt it, but I'll email her just to be sure."

So he sat down and wrote: "Dear Mother, I'm not saying that you 'did' take the gravy ladle from my house, I'm not saying that you 'did not' take the gravy ladle but the fact remains that one has been missing ever since you were here for dinner. Love, John." The next day, John received a response from his mother that read:

"Dear Son, I'm not saying that you 'do' sleep with Julie, and I'm not saying that you 'do not' sleep with Julie. But the fact remains that if she were sleeping in her own bed, she would have found the gravy ladle by now. Love, Mom."

Those are some of the don'ts. The dos are equally obvious. Do love the women in your life with the encouragement, affection, support and reverence they deserve by right. Do be faithful to your wife in mind and body. Do show courtesy and respect to the women you meet, even when they don't return it. Chivalry is dead only if we men cooperate in killing it — and given the vulgarity of our current national environment and its leaders, we certainly need some kind of new code of dignity between the sexes.

Finally, those of you who marry, do have more children, and do invest your time and heart in them. America is facing a birth bust, and it's a sign of our growing national selfishness. Children are the future. They're the cement of love in the covenant of a husband and wife. They're the single best antidote to selfishness.

Harvey Weinstein, Kevin Spacey and all the other blots on recent male behavior are merely a symptom of an entire culture of unhinged attitudes toward sex. Women are right to be angry when men treat them like objects and act like bullies and pigs. But a real reform of male behavior will never come about through feminist lectures and mass media man-shaming by celebrities and award ceremonies. In a lot of men, that kind of hectoring will merely breed nominal repentance and inner resentment. A man's actions and words change only when his heart changes for the better. And his heart only changes for the better when he discovers something to believe in that transforms and gives meaning to his life; something that directs all of his reasoning and desires. In other words, when he becomes a new man. ...

But we don't and we can't create ourselves. And when we try, we destroy the very thing that guarantees our humanity: the reality that none of us is a god, but all of us are sons and daughters of the true and only God.

There's only one way any of us will ever become a genuinely new man. It's by giving ourselves totally to God. It's by putting on the new man in Jesus Christ that Paul describes in Ephesians 4 (22-24) and Colossians 3 (9-17). And the kind of new men we become demands the armor Paul gives us in Ephesians 6 (11-17) — because, like it or not, as Catholic men, we really are engaged in a struggle for the soul of a beautiful but broken world.

To put it another way: The "new knighthood" St. Bernard of Clairvaux once praised never really disappears. It's new and renewed in every generation of faithful Catholic men. And brothers, that means us. It's a vocation that belongs to us, and nobody else. ...

Maleness, brothers, is a matter of biology. It just happens. Manhood must be learned and earned and taught. That's our task. So my prayer for all of us today is that God will plant the seed of a new knighthood in our hearts — and make us the kind of "new men" our families, our Church, our nation, and our world need. ♦

MOST REV. CHARLES J. CHAPUT, O.F.M. Cap., is archbishop of Philadelphia.

22 Rules of Knighthood

In his Feb. 3 address in Phoenix, Archbishop Chaput summarized the rules of knighthood written more than 500 years ago by Erasmus of Rotterdam in his book The Manual of a Christian Knight.

- 1 Deepen and increase your faith.
- 2 Act on your faith; make it a living witness to others.
- 3 Analyze and understand your fears; don't be ruled by them.
- 4 Make Jesus Christ the only guide and the only goal of your life.
- 5 Turn away from material things; don't be owned by them.
- 6 Train your mind to distinguish the true nature of good and evil.
- 7 Never let any failure or setback turn you away from God.
- 8 Face temptation guided by God, not by worry or excuses.
- 9 Always be ready for attacks from those who fear the Gospel and resent the good.
- 10 Always be prepared for temptation. And do what you can to avoid it.
- 11 Be alert to two special dangers: moral cowardice and personal pride.
- 12 Face your weaknesses and turn them into strengths.
- 13 Treat each battle as if it were your last.
- 14 A life of virtue has no room for vice; the little vices we tolerate become the most deadly.
- 15 Every important decision has alternatives; think them through clearly and honestly in the light of what's right.
- 16 Never, ever give up or give in on any matter of moral substance.
- 17 Always have a plan of action. Battles are often won or lost before they begin.
- 18 Always think through, in advance, the consequences of your choices and actions.
- 19 Do nothing — in public or private — that the people you love would not hold in esteem.
- 20 Virtue is its own reward; it needs no applause.
- 21 Life is demanding and brief; make it count.
- 22 Admit and repent your wrongs, never lose hope, encourage your brothers, and then begin again. ♦
