COUNCIL MEETING APRIL 11, '19

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT:

Brother Knights,

It's hard to believe the fish fry season is almost over. Thanks to everyone that has been helping each Friday night during lent. The Mardi Gras Party was festive with great music and delicious Cajun food. Our fish fries have been well attended and have been recognized for one of the best fish fries in the St Louis area. If you haven't eaten or worked at the fish fry this year, please make an effort to join us for the last fish fry on Friday, April 12th.

The Knights have been asked again this year to prepare and serve breakfast to the RCIA candidates and families on Holy Saturday morning. Please let me know if you can help serve or prepare breakfast on Saturday, April 20th. This is a nice opportunity to serve and meet the new members of our Catholic faith.

We will be handing out Scott Hahn's book "Signs of Life" for the Easter give away after all Masses on Easter and at the Holy Saturday night vigil, please plan to help for 15 minutes after whichever Mass you attend.

Have you been sitting on the sidelines and letting others take the leadership roles in the Council? Here's your opportunity to step up and lead our Council. Elections for new Council officers will be taking place in the next month. Please call me if you are interested in becoming an officer of our Council.

40 Days for Life: Pray to End Abortion. Please come and join the Incarnate Word parish in peaceful prayer during the 40 Days for Life Campaign on April 13th from 7am-7pm. Consider signing up for just one hour to peacefully pray on the sidewalks outside Planned Parenthood on April 13th. Call Christy McCollom at 314-542-2535 to sign up for an hour.

Our next general meeting will be held on Thursday, April 12th at 7pm in the Multipurpose room. If you are available, please join us to pray the Rosary at 6:30 in the Multipurpose room before the meeting begins.

God Bless,

Chris Williams
Grand Knight

LADIES AUXILIARY MEMBERS:

Easter Greetings Ladies,

Wishing everyone a Glorious Easter. Enjoy the springtime and all the wonderful flowers it brings.

We have had a busy Fish Fry season. Thanks to all the Ladies who show-up to do the condiments at 2pm and to set-up everything for the dessert tables. We all work well together. BITS & PIECES:

Squirrels in Church:

Squirrels had overrun three churches in Fareham Town, Hampshire, UK. This amusing story was told to us by an old friend from the South coast of England:

The vicars had tried everything in their power to remove them. After a great deal of prayer, the churchwardens of the first church determined that the animals were predestined to be there. Who were they to interfere with God's will? However, the squirrels continued to multiply.

The second church's wardens also decided that they could not harm any of God's creatures; so they purchased some humane traps, caught the miscreants and set the squirrels free outside of town in the New Forest. Several days later, the squirrels returned much to the Parish Council's horror.

It was only the third church, Holy Trinity, which succeeded in keeping the intruders away. The vicar baptised the squirrels and registered them as members of the church.

Now they only see them at Christmas and Easter.

Prayer for Easter

Young Ernie and his family were invited to have Easter lunch at his grandmother's house in Monkey's Eyebrow, Arizona. USA. Everyone was seated around the table as the food was being served. When Ernie received his plate he started eating straight away.

'Ernie, wait until we say grace,' demanded his father.

'I don't have to,' the five year old replied.

'Of course you do, Ernest,' his mother insisted rather forcefully. 'We always say a prayer before eating at our house.'

'That's at our house,' Ernie explained, 'but this is Grandma's house, and she knows how to cook.'

A Poem For Easter - The Easter Bunny

There's a story quite funny,
About a toy bunny,
And the wonderful
things she can do;
Every bright Easter
morning,
Without warning,
She colors eggs, red,
green, or blue.
Some she covers with
spots,
Some with quaint little

dots,
And some with strange
mixed colors, too
- Red and green, blue
and yellow,
But each unlike his fellow
Are eggs of every hue.
And it's odd, as folks
say,
That on no other day
In all of the whole year
through,
Does this wonderful
bunny,
So busy and funny,
Colour eggs of every hue.

If this story you doubt
She will soon find you out,
And what do you think she
will do?
On the next Easter morning
She'll bring you without warning,
Those eggs of every hue.

Consecration to the Holy Family Coming Soon

The Consecration to the Holy Family is one of the programs associated with the Faith in Action Initiative. The Consecration is an amazing opportunity to entrust your family to the patronage of the Holy Family. It will strengthen our families and revitalize our parish. A date for the Consecration will be announced soon so please watch for the update.

The goal is to help families live out the joy of Christ. Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William Lori has composed a prayer through which families will come together to consecrate themselves under the protection of the Holy Family. In this prayer, we ask for the aid or intercession of the perfect son - Jesus Christ, Mary - the perfect mother, and Joseph - the model for every father.

How to prepare for a Consecration to the Holy Family

Preparation for a Consecration to the Holy Family involves deciding that you are not only dedicating your family to the Holy Family's intercession but also acknowledging that your family is sacred.

The decision to consecrate your family needs to be intentional and a process through which you completely surrender your family to God through the Holy Family. You are accepting the truth that salvation history was changed forever by a family and that through your domestic church, you are called to exemplify their example.

Four suggested steps before Praying the Consecration to the Holy Family:

1. Discuss the importance of this consecration as a family and why you are doing it.
2. Each member of your family is strongly encouraged to go to the Sacrament of Confession.
3. As a family, intentionally choose something from which you will fast. The fast can be for at least a week. As our physical bodies are drawn to things of the world, it is strongly encouraged that you fast from something that you would normally do or consume. Fasting helps to discipline our minds and hearts to refrain from secular activities and be more focused on God.
4. Prepare for the commitment you are making. Consecration to the Holy Family is not a single event. You have chosen a way of life for your family. You and your family are consciously choosing to be a beacon of light of God's love through His Church.

Again, please watch for additional information about this program.
