WE WILL BE PRAYING THE ROSARY IN THE LIBRARY OFF THE HALLWAY LOCATED NEXT TO THE MUSIC ROOM AT 6:30PM BEFORE OUR JUNE GENERAL MONTHLY MEETING

COUNCIL MEETING JUNE 13, '19

The meeting of the Council will take place in the Library located off the hallway next to the parish offices & music room.
The meeting will begin at 7:00pm.

FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT:

Brother Knights,

Twenty four months ago I was elected to be Grand Knight of our Council. I was initially fearful of how I would be able to lead an already successful Council. I quickly learned that my biggest challenge would be keeping up with the hard working members of our Council.

Because of your efforts last year our Council earned the prestigious "Star Council" award. The Star Council award is like winning the Triple Crown of the horse racing world by meeting and exceeding our insurance goals, program goals and membership goals. Thanks to our Directors for ensuring we accomplished all of our program goals and thanks to our Membership Recruiter, Rob Schultz, for his tireless efforts to help our Council to grow, we now have over 200 members and of course thanks to everyone that purchased the Knight's insurance products this past year. Once again we finished first place in the state during the 2018 Developmental Disability Drive raising the most funds of all the Councils in the state. Thanks to Jim Ressler for Chairing the DD Drive for the past three years and thanks to everyone that took part in the Drive. Supreme gave us two new Faith initiatives, Building the Domestic Church and Faith in Action. Jerry Burmeister and our Council took this to heart by leading small men's faith groups at Jerry's house that developed into a parish wide faith and leadership program "That Man is You" with over 100 men meeting every Saturday morning at 6:30 AM over a 26 week period. Above are just a few of the highlights over the past two years, but our Council has accomplished so much more in the parish and community by leading faith programs, donating thousands of dollars to local charities, to Incarnate Word, feeding the poor, leading blood drives, praying together for life and religious vocations, performing evangelization efforts with book and CD giveaways, upgrading the school lighting, performing youth competition events, helping at Felice Coures dances and taking a little time to have a few social events together. I'm proud to have been the Grand Knight of our Council for the past two years and would like to thank all our Directors, Officers and Members for their hard work and support over the past two years.

God Bless,

Chris Williams
Grand Knight

GREATER ST. LOUIS CHAPTER NEWS:

Brother Knights and Ladies,

The "Chapter" consists of 4 Fourth Degree Assemblies, 11 Districts and 56 Councils located in St. Louis City and St. Louis County – hence the Greater St. Louis Chapter. Conservatively, the Councils' membership totals more than six thousand Third and Fourth Degree Knights. Upon payment of dues, each Council is allowed 3 delegates and 1 alternate for voting on business matters and election of officers.

The Chapter meets on the 4th Monday at the Epiphany of our Lord Parish, Assumption Room, 3164 Ivanhoe Avenue, 63139 (Near Arsenal and Jameson) The Knights begin by praying the Holy Rosary of our Blessed Lady at 7:15 PM. A light meal and beverages are offered and a one hour interactive general business meeting follows with dismissal by 9 PM. There are no meetings scheduled in May and December due to Memorial Day and Christmas commitments.

The Chapter is designed to educate and inform District Deputies, Faithful Navigators, Grand Knights, Council leaders and delegates about programs, goals, resources and opportunities for Assemblies and Councils to survive and thrive while evangelizing and spreading the messages of Knighthood and our Catholic faith. Our Chapter Chaplain shares valuable reflections and prayers during the meeting.

Missouri State Officers and Chairmen address the meeting participants on matters key to the success of our State, Assembly and Council programs. Knights are thus equipped to take the messages and resources to their Brother Knights. Speakers vary from meeting to meeting. Topics are seasonal and handouts are generous and valuable for reproduction and dissemination to all your fellow Knights and Ladies.. Annual Chapter dues are $50 payable by July 31st.
